PURPOSE OF COURSE:

1. To become familiar with selected works of literature and authors of four genres: short story, novel, poetry, and drama.
2. To acquire a knowledge of methods of writing literary papers of a critical nature.
3. To become cognizant of the manner in which significant literary works are both a reflection of and a contribution to the socio-cultural milieu of the era.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

(Novel to be announced)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Class attendance is required. Excessive tardies and absences may result in lowered grades, withdrawal or failure of the course, as stated in your college catalog.
2. Reading of assigned materials and completion of all written assignments.
3. Four exams per schedule attached.
4. One research paper using MLA format.

GRADING:

To receive credit for ENC 1102, you must complete all of the written assignments and earn a minimum of a C average. Your final grade will be an average of the exams, research paper, and other written assignments. Class attendance and participation are also relevant to your final grade.

The penalty for late papers is 5 points per day late. No papers will be accepted after 1 week of the due date. You will have your assignments well in advance, but if you have scheduling problems, see me ahead of time. Make-up exams will be given only with prior permission and must be taken within one week of the missed class period. No incomplete grades.

Grading Scale:

- 90-100 = A
- 80 - 90 = B
- 70 - 80 = C
60 - 70 = D
Below 60 = F
IMPORTANT COLLEGE POLICIES:

Accommodations for Special Needs Students

If you have special needs for which accommodations may be appropriate to assist you in this class, please contact the Office of Services for Students with Special Needs in Building C-1 on the Niceville Campus, or call 729-6079 (TDD 1-800-955-8771 or Voice 1-800-955-8770).

Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Academic Integrity

Students are responsible for adherence to all college policies and procedures, including those related to academic freedom, cheating, classroom conduct, and other items included in the NWFSC Catalog and Student Handbook. Students should be familiar with the rights and responsibilities detailed on pages 29-33. Plagiarism, cheating or any other form of academic dishonesty is a serious breach of student responsibilities and may trigger consequences which range from a failing grade to formal disciplinary action.

Cell Phone/Electronic Communication Devices

Cell phones, pagers and other such electronic devices must be turned off during class time. Communication by electronic device during class is strictly prohibited unless expressly designated as part of the learning activities. Use of electronic communication devices during examinations or other graded activities may constitute grounds for disciplinary action. Where emergency or employment situations require access to electronic communication services, arrangements may be made in advance with the instructor.
